My Weekend

Mr Dennis Teoh, 37, is owner of fast reflex spa Fast River. Influencing and influencer marketing and media agency The Influencer Network's Communications. He will host a YouTube programme, The Three Minute Affair, in which he speaks to various local personalities. The bachelors will move into his new condominium in Flora Drive next month.

"Sports is a big part of my lifestyle so throughout the week, I keep physically active. But on weekends, there is a bigger focus on activities such as volleyball and cycling.

On Fridays, I finish work at 6pm, which is typically the time I leave the office on weekdays. I don't believe in working late as there has to be good work-life balance to keep myself contented.

The evening is either spent playing volleyball, chilling with friends over dinner or catching a movie at the cinema.

Volleyball has been my favourite sport since I was a teen. I used to be the HomeTeamNS champion in Balestier at the Singapore Sports Hub to play with a regular group of fellow enthusiasts.

I keep my Saturdays and Sundays work-free and wake up slightly later, at around 9 to 10am.

Saturday mornings are when I go hunting for old-school breakfast fare in hawker centres. Nowadays, people are all about visiting the slew of cafes that have popped up, but Singapore has several forgotten breakfast joints that have retained the traditional flavours of the dishes.

Some hawker centres I recommend are the Wet Ling Market and Food Centre in Queenstown for the duck noodle and a mouth-watering coffee shop that has really good vegetarian noodles.

In the afternoon, I head to the Kahong branch of Fast River - not to work, but to get a relaxing foot massage. The staff might get angry thinking I'm leaving them, but it's really for my own enjoyment.

After the massage, a friend and I head to East Coast Park to cycle. We love cycling in the park and not in Marina Barrage as the greenery and sea stream really make for a comfortable ride.
